In Practice

Our final task in this unit is to have a bit of improvisational fun. Claire will talk you through her process of getting these revolving licks and legato playing into her jamming and songwriting. This is an important step whenever you learn licks and riffs, as only by doing this can you start to mould the licks to work for you.

"This is not the time to be a perfectionist. This is the time to accept and enjoy the mistakes as you try new ideas!"

CLAIRE GENOUD

There we have it guys! 2 cool new licks and plenty of technical exercises to build your strength and speed. Keep this in your daily warm-ups and jamming sessions, as they will gradually build the muscle strength you need to tackle any rock solo and riff!
