Congrats!

You've done it, guys! Well done for making it this far and working all the way through the course. In this lesson Dan takes the time to show you how to, once again, take the licks you like and repurpose them into your own playing and songwriting. This process is absolutely crucial for any blues player and should not be overlooked. Try to spend a good few weeks getting these licks firmly rooted into your own improvisation.

keys as possible!
The more keys and styles of blues you try, the more chance you have to mould the licks to your fingers.
