Lick 5-6

We have a little bit of rest-bite for you here, certainly in comparison to the last lick! For these two licks, we are using tremolo picking alongside the E minor open position 1. Tremolo picking simply involves you picking the right hand as quickly as you can, sometimes using your arm rather than the wrist, to ensure you build up enough speed! The 6th lick is a cool bluesy lick using the E blues scale. Check out the scales in the fretboard diagrams.

Slap It  0%

In our final solo study we will combine all of EVH's techniques and licks into a seriously hard solo to get together! This is not for the faint hearted, but if you really commit to it and put the practice in, you'll get it!
