Electric Blues Part 2

UNIT 4 • LESSON 1 << PREVIOUS NEXT >>

"Save Me From This Man"

Here is a new Chicago style blues tune for you guys! This track includes a classic bouncy shuffle guitar part that we will introduce you to in the next lesson. This track is essentially the same thing looped around 6 times, but it's a lot harder than it may seem!

“

Before we dive into the song properly in the next lesson, I want to use this opportunity to do a little bit of ear training. Listen to the track a few times

Can you hear the changes?

As you listen to this song, can you hear where the fundamental chords are changing. I've included the 12 bar blues outline, so you can compare it to the track you're listening to. Remember that the E7 is the I chord, the A7 is the IV chord and the B7 is the V chord.

| I | IV | I | I |

| IV | IV | I | I |

| V | IV | I | V | .

Notice this is a slightly different approach for the 12 bar section. We'll talk more about that in the upcoming lessons.

We encourage you to make sure you can hear these changes before moving on. So that may mean stopping the video and activating the backing track as well, to ensure you hear them rather than just see them and follow! Good luck and I'll see you in the next lesson.
