You Did It!

You now have all the different parts you need to play this song and start to put it together. In the next unit, we will be diving into the tone, which will help us take the next step, but for now, you need to simply focus on getting the technical aspects of the song together. Good luck!

“ Congrats on getting through all of unit 1! Take your time with the track and when you're ready, let's jump into the tone and stylings of Jack White in unit 2.
