Your First Solo!

Ok, so it is now time to attempt our first guitar solo! We are using the key of C minor and therefore using the C minor pentatonic solo. This is a tricky solo as it combines slides, hammer-ons and pull-offs. Parts of the solo are pretty quick as well, so be sure to take it one bar at a time and gradually build up the speed! let's take a look at the tab:

“

As you work through the solo in your own time, be sure to identify each note as part of the minor pentatonic scale box. As long as you're doing that you'll be able to apply these licks and ideas to your own improvisation later down the line.

Focus on getting this solo pretty bang on before you dive into the next unit. It's important to really take your time with this one, as we can use all of those cool licks in our own improvisation. Take your time with that, and I'll see you in the next lesson!
