UNIT 3

Electric Blues 0% v

Part 1

UNIT 4

Electric Blues 0% v

Part 2

The chart & muting

First up, as discussed in the video, the muting plays an important role in this song. Be sure to spend time practicing the difference between fretting the chord properly, and then muting all 6 strings. This is an essential part of powerchord playing moving forward. As for the chord chart, which can help us get a better feel for the outline of the track, it looks like this:

| E5 | E5 | E5 | E5 B5 |
| D5 | D5 | D5 | D5 B5 | (x2)

“

Your task here is to focus on this verse section and try and get it together, maybe even with the interactive tab, before moving onto the next lesson! Good luck and take your time!
