The Riff

Now for something very different! We're going to use our E minor pentatonic scale to play a cool, wild west style style riff. Let's use our tab skills to learn this part. If you need help reading this tab, refer back to the previous unit. Dan also walks you through it very clearly, note by note, in the video lesson. Here it is: the scale shape all the way through this process! To help you with that, let's remind you of the fretboard diagram that you should be thinking about with every single note you play!

Good luck

Your next job is to play through this whole section, ideally using the drum machine in the Toolbox as well. Take your time, and when ready we'll see you in the next lesson.
