Slow Blues Solo

UNIT 3 • LESSON 5 << PREVIOUS NEXT >>

Lesson notes Interactive tab Diagrams

Bar 9–12

For the final part of the solo we are playing over the 5, 4 and then root chords. In this section, we will be sticking with our B minor pentatonic initially, followed by the more specific dominant 7th arpeggios to target the movement of the chords. So, you need to visualise the minor pentatonic box 4 for the first lick, followed by the E7 arpeggio (E Shape) for the second lick. Finally, we come back down to the B major pentatonic box 2 for that cool, Buddy Guy style, final lick that targets the B7 chord. Voila!

Mix it all up...

Once you have the solo learnt as a piece, it's time to mix it all up! Take out the licks you like, and practice finding them in every key over a variety of slow blues tracks. This is how you'll get them into your playing in the long term. Good luck, and have fun!
