Mark

Next, we head south to Brighton, where we visit Mark Shoebottom. Mark's studio is deep in the digital world, with the computer very much at the heart of his set-up. Mark gives us a tour of all of his hardware in this lesson, and we'll do our best to make sure every piece of gear is linked to in this write-up! If you're interested in really modern gear this is the one for you!
