Putting It All Together

With all the individual elements learnt, we will now put the whole thing together. It's all written out in this chord chart below. Remember to play the lead guitar part when the chord chart says "guitar solo".

Start by slowly piecing the sections together, then add drums, then use backing track...

Practice routine update...

Now, before we end this unit, let's just check out our practice routine. It stays very much the same in the Guitar Gym section, but now our musical section is very different! Here we have it.

“ And there you have it! Another unit done, and more awesome knowledge is yours! Remember, all this knowledge is one thing, but the practice and experience of it is the main element. That means showing up

each day
to practice!
