Improvisation

Improvising is something you have to practice! A lot of guitarists think that you either 'have it or you don't' when it comes to improvising, but that isn't the case. To practise improvising, you need to make sure that every time you learn a new solo, lick or riff, you immediately try to apply it to other things. This may be in a songwriting process, jamming to a backing track or even jamming with a band. Watch the video carefully to start to understand how you can break down licks and get them under your fingers more and more!

you can do.
It's a long
process,
based in
experience,
not overthinking
about it.

There we have it guys! Another course down and done! Congrats for getting all the way through it, that is absolutely fantastic. You should give yourself a big pat on the back and be sure to come back to these solos over and over again, as they slowly develop over the months ahead. Love the journey guys, you are on it now and doing brilliantly.
