When you're dealing with riff based songs, or even solos, the first step in your ear training journey is to be able hum the melody. After listening a couple of times, can you sing the riff part confidently? This is the process we must go through in order to learn the song well. If you can hum it, and know the melody, you will be able to play it better as you work through the learning process. So, good luck, and keep listening!
