Improvising Test

This video is all about putting the 'airports' theory into practice in various different keys over different backing tracks. To help you out, we have provided you with 5 backing tracks in different keys, but of course you can use as many as you like in whatever keys you like! As well as that we've put the diagrams of where at the backing track keys are on the fretboard, based on the airport system we spoke about in the last week!
