The Melody Maker

UNIT 4 • LESSON 5 << PREVIOUS

Lesson notes

Interactive tab

All Together Now!

The final part of the loop simply returns to the opening part, like this:

| G C D6 | G | (x4)

The good news is that this stays exactly the same as the first section, so we can simply tag this on the end to get the structure of the song perfect. Tab wise it looks like this:

This last part is identical to the first!

The notation shows three systems of guitar and bass tabs. The first system (measures 17-18) shows a G chord, C chord, D6 chord, and G chord. The second system (measures 19-21) shows a G chord, C chord, D6 chord, G chord, G chord, C chord, and D chord. The third system (measures 22-24) shows a G chord, C chord, D6 chord, and a final G chord marked with a 3x repeat sign.

For our final unit, we will take everything we have learned so far and put it all together in this beautiful piece.

The chord chart

We always like a simple chord chart to remind us of the piece, over the detailed tab as it can pull you out of the “weeds” and give you a bit more perspective on the piece as a whole. Here is that chart:

| G C D6 | G | (x4)
| Cmaj7 D | Em7 | Cmaj7 B7 | |
| Cmaj7 D | Em7 | A7 Cmaj7 | |
| G C D6 | G | (x4)

There we have it! We have the whole track together! Please take your time with this, as it's a monster track and such a fingerstyle statement track! With these skills under your belt, you can now start arranging your tunes, working on other fingerstyle pieces and get a firm grasp of how it all works theory wise! I'm excited that you are now at this stage. Let it absorb, be kind to yourself as you work through it, and before you know it, you'll have these skills in the bag (ready for Level 3!).

“ It's been a pleasure working through these lessons with you, and I'm excited to hear how you get on with it.
