Fun Time

With everything ready in our set-up, it's time to have a bit of fun! Dan starts a new project and records an entire jam track in real-time! Watch as Dan works through a range of ideas, using Drums, guitar plugins and all of his hardware to show you how it's done! We don't need a specific write up here as we are simply reiterating everything we have spoken about up to now! Sit back, relax and enjoy!
