The Chorus

The great news here is that the chorus has the exact same chords as we are using in the verse & intro! So, we don't need to learn any new chords. The difference comes from the openness we now add to the rhythm, which makes the whole thing sound bigger! We also use a fair few more embellishments in this section, which Thomas guides you through in the video! Let's check out that chord chart.

The Chorus

| C | C G/B | Am | F | (x4)

We're using this rhythm pattern to add more urgency to the chorus. It does vary a little bit though, as you play through the chorus.
