All Together!

For our final lesson of the track Thomas works with you, step by step, to try and get the song played all the way through. He kicks off at around 70BPM and starts to work up from there. Take your time at each speed level, and don't rush this process.

As I said in the last unit, every single piece in this course is a BIG challenge. There is absolutely no need to move on until

Just before you go...

🔥 This is a level 3 course. That means a LOT! Level 3 means you have put it a lot of time, energy and love into 2 previous courses, and are now going through that all again with this course. So, as well as giving yourself a big pat on the back, you need to strap in and make peace with the fact that this is going to take a lot of time to get together properly. Add these 4 songs to your playlist and work through them for the next few months to see them properly develop. As you absorb the content, start to write your own tracks in these styles as well. After all, that is where the true magic happens. All the best, and good luck on your acoustic journey!
