The Intro Riff

For the first time in your guitar learning thus far we are moving away from chords and into a bit of riff! Although this riff is based around E minor I would still class it as a riff as it's a repetitive, very specific part that we need to learn. The riff looks like this:

Now, if you've never seen or read TAB before, this is going to look like complete nonsense to you! So let's take a second to review how to read tab. Here is an extremely random looking tab, to help you understand the core elements:
