Putting It Together

For our last lesson of the course, we repeat the same B section, except this time throw in a few cheeky pinched harmonics, and some cool legato lines. At this point we are applying everything we have learnt to this point: Down picking, syncopation, accenting, Phrygian notes, minor notes, powerchords and much more! Follow along with Dion to get the track played through from start to finish, nice and slowly, and then gradually speed it all up.
