Congrats!

You've done it! You have now got through the entire course and our last task is to piece this solo together! We'll get it on loop at a slow speed, before breaking it apart and using the licks in our own improvisation! Remember, as with every course, we have now given you a range of tools and new knowledge, which means that you will need to apply it over months of playing to really get it to the point of habit.

Just to clarify, all of this work takes time. I see all too many students “beating themselves up” over not getting it
