Whammy Bar Harmonics

The first thing you will need is a Floyd Rose style bridge, to ensure you can do these crazy dips and dives! If you try this with a normal style whammy bar, you will quickly knock your guitar out of tune, and potentially snap the strings. As for the harmonics, we are using the harmonics found on the 4th, 5th, 7th and 9th frets... Just with a lot of gain and some fun whammy bar dips. These are all notes within our key of E minor, so work perfectly. The notes you are using can be found in the fretboard diagram.
