"Rock & Roll"

In this unit, we have brought together all of the biggest Jimmy Page style riffs so that we can go through how each sound is played, how they are written and the effect they have on a song. Jimmy Page is as creative as they come, but that doesn't mean that every single riff he writes is totally unique. There are always certain themes, techniques and shapes that he'll come back to time after time. So, listen to the track a few times and then move onto the next lesson.
