Section B

Let's now move into the B section, which really starts to move us up the neck! It's worth noting that this whole track is in the key of E major, and we're now moving up to the C#m chord for this section, which pulls the focus to the natural minor, and is a great way to shift to a new section of the track.

CAGED chords...

Let's take a bird's eye view of this part of the track. We are using some beautiful voicings for these

That fill!

If you're anything like me, that fill Thomas plays in the final bar fills you with joy! Pun intended! It's worth diving into that a little more. These notes are all plucked from the E major scale, and can be easily assigned to the C CAGED chord shape. Like this...

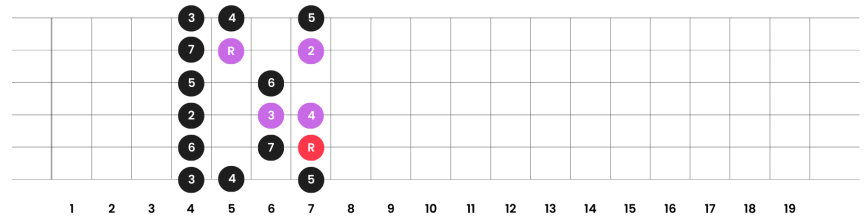

The scale shapes below sit directly on top of the CAGED chord shape. Then, the highlighted purple notes are the notes Thomas uses in his awesome fill.
