Licks Part 1

We will now go through the first set of licks in the song. The good news is that you already know all of these licks... they have simply been re-used within the context of this song, just like Jimi Hendrix! Let's start by looking at the basic chord chart. In this lesson, we are only looking at the chords in red.

The CAGED Chords & Pentatonics

Take a look at the fretboard diagrams for the chord shapes and pentatonics for the first set of chords in the chord chart. The green circles represent the chord within the pentatonic shapes.
