The Octave & Slides!

Let's now finish up the major box shape and add in the root note, but an octave up! This will really complete the sound, and the box, so well worth adding at this point. Let's take a look at those boxes across the board.

All the major pentatonic!

Slides

Slides are an incredible way to add a vocal style to your playing. They are also fun to play around with and explore. Here is a quick guide for slides.

NOTE: This doesn't mean you can't do any of this technique on all the intervals, we're just building up your tool bag based around intervals that lend themselves nicely to slides!
