Hark! The Herald Angels Sing by Brian May

Let's kick off with the most epic rock version of this song you will have ever heard! as with any Queen track, there is a lot going on, and a lot of harmonising in the guitar parts. For this particular track we are focused on two elements of it, the lead part and the main rhythm track. So, let's start by getting you a killer (Queen) Brian May tone!

The base of our tone is using a VOX AC30 style preset in TONEX by IK Multimedia. This is an incredible piece of kit, and allows you to get incredibly close to an accurate Brian May tone without spending thousands on a VOX amp. You can see we have the EQ quite flat, although you could take it further and boost the mids to get even more of a honky tone.

We also used a fair bit of compression, which looked like this.

PARKER FLY

As we don't have a Red Special knocking around the office, we decided to use this super cool Parker Fly guitar! It's an absolute beauty, and so easy to play. We used the bridge humbucker position on the guitar and rolled back the tone a little bit.
